discussed and awarded the prizes of the INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION OF LANDSCAPE
DESIGN WORKS FROM SCHOOLS OF ARCHITECTURE AND LANDSCAPE.

The 1st Award of this edition was given to

University of Toronto

for:

The student works cover a vast range of landscape architectural topics in each project, from empirical enquiry on issues of planning and ecology to highly developed spatial formulations, always visualized in a highly sensitive way; furthermore time is an integral part of the design, presenting proposals that do not aim at fixed end scenarios but leave room for development.
